Welcome to the Met's 50th Anniversary Season at Lincoln Center!

With six new productions and 20 revivals during our 50th year at Lincoln Center, there's never been a better time to share the magic of the Met with your groups.

New production highlights include Gounod's Roméo et Juliette directed by acclaimed Broadway director Bartlett Sher, Strauss's Der Rosenkavalier starring Renée Fleming, and the Met premiere of Finnish composer Kaija Saariaho's breakthrough opera L'Amour de Loin.

Gems from the repertory include beloved productions of Puccini's La Bohème, Mozart's Don Giovanni, and Verdi's Aida. Be sure to note special holiday pricing for Julie Taymor's English-language production of The Magic Flute.

Whether your groups are making first visits to the Met or are opera fans looking to rediscover a classic, the 2016–17 season is the ideal time to plan your visit. Great rates up to 25% off standard pricing are available for groups of 10 or more, plus extraordinary offers exclusive for Student Groups.
